THE CALEDONIAN

BY C. M. STONE & CO.

St. Johnsbury, Friday, Aug. 9, 1861.

ilv.

STATE TICKET. For Governor PREDERICK HOLBROOK, of Brattlebord For Licatemant Governor. LEVI UNDERWOOD, of Burlington. For Treasurer, JOHN B. PAGE, of Rutland.

CALEDONIA CO. TICKET. A. F. JUDEVINE, Hardwick, & Senators, SERENO MONTGOMERY, Walden, (Judges. PARKS, St. Johnsbury. A. L. FRENCH, St. Johnshary, Judge of Probate GEO. W. CAHOON, Lyndow, State's Attorney. EMERSON HALL, St. John-bury, Sheriff. CHAS, SHIPMAN, Hardwick, Bailiff.

ESSEX CO. TICKET

WM, B MAY, Concord, Senator, MILTON CUTLER, Guildhall, (Judges, BSON. Brighton. JONAH BROOKS, Lunenburg, Judge Probate. the people generally welcome this tax as a O. F. HARVEY, Concerd, State's Attorney, H. W. BEDELL, Lunenburg, Sheriff. ANDREW BLODGETT, Lemington, Bailiff

ELECTION, Tuesday, Sept.3.

There is no startling army movement chronicle this week. The country is recovering from the Bull and run affair ; troops continue to pour into Washington ; Gen. Me-Clellan's presence seems to inspire the North with fresh hope and fill the rebels with new fear. We don't know how it is, but all seem to feel that there is a power in that man that will soon make itself known. Major General Monroe, undoubtedly to assume the command sentenced to be hung, which sentence was carried into execution on Friday. The scaffold was erected upon the walls of Fort Ellsworth, and the execution witnessed by 20,000 soldiers and civilians. Murray enlisted, we

From the Detroit Advertiser, July 30.1 Wait a Little.

Yesterday morning's telegraph stated that the officers of the Second Vermont Regiment are informed, at Littleton. He leaves a fam-Col Whiting was a resident of this state at was in the battle at Manassas. Although we name, and trust our citizens will not be too pated will be read with interest by all.] STILL BARKING .- The N. Y. Independent has taken up the business (by correspondence) of criticising and defaming the government at Washington, so lately abandoned by the Tribune. There is a letter in the last number from Charles L. Brace which the friends of that popular writer will be sorry to see, and which cannot possibly add lustre to his already well-known and much-admired wrisend to Michigan for a colonel of the regi- Such tired, hungry, worn out boys never were ly all its friends who still clung to it, found that it had mistaken the sentiment of the people-that there was really no response to the continual carping in its columns upon the think the Independent will learn the same charge may have been prompted by personal at our camp near Bull Run. At 2 A. M. of fact. The intelligent masses will not tolerate feeling rather than the public good. Col Sunday we started on our march. There this mischievous meddling : the papers that Whiting is a graduate of West Point, and were the same long lines of soldiers that I persist in it will be let alone most severely. served six years in the army, having resigned have before spoken of, but this morning we TARIFF.-An additional tariff act has pass ed Congress, imposing a duty of 15 cents per pound on tea, 4 cents on coffee, 3 on cocon 2 on sugar, and 2 on chickory: the duty on silk goods is increased 10 per cent, and 25 cents per gallon additional duty is placed on brandy, and 10 cents on wines. The bill for direct taxation levies a rate of 3 per cent on all incomes over $800 per annum. Although means to raise money to carry on the war. some are fearful that it may complicate our affairs with foreign powers who furnish us these articles, and be the means of the conmore conclusive evidence upon that point. federate states being acknowledged as an in-----dependent power by these nations.

The New Hampshire 2d regiment cov-We are glad to learn from various sources ered itself with glory at Manassas. Both that our prisoners in the hands of the rebels Gen Scott and Col Burnside have expressed at Manassas and Richmond are well taken the warmest approbation of the extraordinary care of and that the sick and wounded are firmness and steadiness of the regiment while treated with every kindness. Some of the under galling fire and during the retreat. stories of rebel atracities on the battle field Col Marston was severely wounded in the have proved to be false, and although there Wool received orders on Monday to report beginning of the engagement at Bull Run, were doubtless many outrages committed by and although gallantly returning to the field, the excited soldiers in revenge for their own writing on Wednesday last, says :

Letter from the 2d Regiment. THE LATE BATTLE.

[A friend allows us to print the following the fastest to retreat If it had not been so had requested Col Whiting to resign. As private letter, which was written by one who the time he was invited to take charge of the have already given a good deal of space to regiment, we feel some interest in his good this battle, this letter from one who particihasty in forming a judgment upon his con- "At this late day, amid the thousand and duct. There are one or two facts which show one exciting things I have had to think of, that this request of his officers to resign am wholly unable to tell whether I have writshould not be taken as a proof that he de- ten you since the great battle or not. Since serves the imputation it casts upon his cour- we returned to Alexandria we have not had age. The first is that many of the officers were much to do, and indeed we are so tired and very indignant that Gov Fairbanks should lame that we could not do much at the best tings. The Tribune, after losing thousands ment, and some bitter complaints were made seen before as the troops were when they reof subscribers per week, and disgusting nearat the time against Goy F. The same tele- turned. You have probably had all the ac graph that reports the charge, also states that counts of the battle ere this. Wy our special two of the officers of this regiment were inter- correspondent.' or by an eve-witness, and cepted while making a hasty flight to Wash- have got more real information undoubtedly ington and their swords taken from them.- than an actor in the strife could boast of.

administration and army movements. We This is enough to create a suspicion that the I was on guard Saturday List (20th July) several years ago from dislike for the inact- took different roads. It was pleasant in the ive life he was compelled to lead, and remov- morning's uncertain darkness, to watch the ed to St Clair, in this state. For four or five wide spread array of camp fires where ho vears before he accepted the command of the coffee had been made for the thousands of 2J Vermont regiment, he had held the office men in the various encampments. The joyof Regent of the Michigan University. He ous shouts of the men rang out upon the air. expressed a wish to be appointed to a regi- the hoarse commands of the officers would ment of this state after the four first had been ring in, and the pattering of the horses' feet, organized. But as the governor did not rear and front, right and left, made a scene then know that another regiment would be of bustle and confusion that was calculated formed, he was selected at the suggestion of to excite and arouse one if anything would ol Richardson, by Gov Fairbanks, to the doit. Those long lines with gleaming arms, command of the Second of that state. We banners bright soon returned, tarnished, tatshall not believe he is a coward until we have tered and torn. We did not make much advance for some time, and the light began to grow more and more certain. At last dawn Rebel Treatment of Federal Prisoners. broke in the east. Officers and men were loud in the denunciations of a delay, but the cause soon became known : the battery in front could get no good position to open fire upon the first rebel battery at Bull Run whose vicinity and effect had been tested the Thursday before. This stopped the whole line of infantry this side of Centreville, but at last the loud opening peals of cannon told that the scene of death and havoc had com- retarded the onward movement vastly .-menced,—the gauntlet had been thrown dow had been taken, he could have done no more, and the fortunes of the world in one sense the war would have been decided. I scarcewere staked upon the issue of the hour, -up ly expect to live through ; certain it is that on the burning of gun-powder and the clash my proud spirit can never stand another deof steel. We were not in the main divisions correspondent of the Providence Journal. feat-'tis 'victory or death.' I had rather die Sad Accident. by which the fighting was to be done, but than run again, and will do it. were to go around and attack them in the "I have just seen Dr Sternberg of the Uni-McClellan takes command of this division Beattie, we learn that D. B. C. Butler, one of rear. Our brigade numbered five regiments : soon and he is a man we can trust, and when their teamsters, while driving a four-ox team three from Maine, one from Vt., and Ellsworth's Zouaves. We did not mix in the stain. Our next battle will be a hard one off hind wheel and his head crushed to pieces. heat of the battle but took a round about and I shall not flinch from my post for friend. He was probably flying the fastening of the 1861. road and all day the heavy roar of cannon or foe. I never came here to run. sounded in our ears and we could see our I am disgusted with Virginia : the soil is under the wheel. The accident occurred in brother soldiers in deadly strife. You may nearly all red, the land level and covered for Stratford, N. H. Mr Butler leaves a wife imagine, the anxiety with which we listened to the roar of the guns. We could see that miles with low dwarf pines : there are some and five small children in Brunswick, Vt. fine forests, but you may travel all day and the enemy was failing back by the onward not see a house, and the houses and villages movement of the roar of battle, and occasional are just the reverse of neat Vermont homes. couriers would bring us good news from the Our defeat the other day was near the place field. The reports were favorable to our where Gen Braddock suffered so severely in side, but the march was very hard; we ran the early wars. If my memory serves me five or six miles going out on the double by our captured surgeons. The rebel offi- quick and in the afternoon when we finally right, his attack was made on Sunday also, certainly he fell into the traps of the enemy got into the field we were so exhausted that much like McDowell. We are always in we were far from being what we otherwise should have been. About the middle of the danger on Sunday-in truth those are the afternoon we were rushed into the field. We days they take for war purposes. Waterloo was fought that day and a hundred others I Most of our officers who were taken, and passed directly by one of the batteries of the might mention. rebels that had been captured by our troops. many of our wounded were sent to Rich-We know something of the little scenes and from there to the field, about a mile and mond, and an officer who escaped from M: emacted just around us in battle-the truth is a half, it was an indescribable scene. I never nassas and arrived here last Mondy, states that the latter were taken into private houses haw such a sight before and if such a thing no one sees a battle-we hear the roar and could be, I wish never to see anything of the struggle is going on. The Generals get a kind again. We met many returning from little wider view, but they depend mostly on the battle wounded and dripping with blood. the reports of their aids and couriers. This asking pitifully for aid and for water. Am-The Woodstock Standard gives the followtrue no one sees except Him who sees all bulances were passing filled with those unaing incidents of the assassination of Dana H things. It must have been the direct agency ble to walk and the dead, some mangled in a of Providence to save so many of us from most shocking manner, but we turned neither that fiery tempest that rained over us. As to the right or the left, but on we marched : we came up among the whistling balls I took soon the balls began to whiz; we could not one long look at the sky and the smoking only hear the guns but see them, and see the hills, then fixed my eyes on the enemy's lines, effects also; we were in a dangerous place: looked at my gun and rushed in. I have no for the position. We have also seen a letter is about seven miles distant. When they had we charged up to a battery and stood the further recollection of any care for the world whole fire of the artillery for a long time, but or personal safety. I never was cooler when bravery was no charm against shot and shell ; point in the road where the trees and underfiring at a target than I was when aiming my the tide had turned, and the most desperate sacrifices now could not stay the current .--The enemy had retreated all day, three or some cold lead, I know that much. I lost four large batteries were described by them. all my baggage, except what I had in my until we got down upon their strong-hold 'Whitney, look sharp !' At this instant close upon Manassas and they brought out pockets. Our wagon broke down and our Petro, was caught near the Canada Line.- A serious difficulty sounds baggage was abandoned by the teamster. In The other, Muller, made his escape, their whole force, fresh and fierce, to meet us thinking of our defeat I have grated my teeth few exhausted infantry. For a long time we to the quick through very madness. Be the were upon a side hill in plain view of the war one month or ten years, 'I am in for it;' enemy and in good rifle shot. I cannot commend their sharp shooters, they might have fighting condition. picked off every man of us seemingly, but ONE OF THE 'TIGFES.'" their cannon shot and shells mostly went over and the rifle balls did but poor execution The most skilful detector of countercompared with what they might have done : feit coin in the New York custom house is a 'tis a miracle that so many of us came off Spaniard, and he puts his nose to that singunear an hour they found a straw hat, and a safe. I was hit by a spent ball upon the arm lar use. His business is to receive and test nesday afternoon of this week, while bathing. lying dead in the road. He rode about three wild everywhere like sheep ; out of our regiment I think one-half were so tired that they could not go on to the field, but they were Musical Convention.

serious it would have been quite amusing. Just imagine how it must look to see thousands of men who have never met before, of which is given in our advertising columns and who have no particular animosity against each other as individuals, rushing into the death field and mangling and hacking each other until you could hardly tell whether the object before you was made in God's image or not; but it is the principle of the thing we are fighting for. A battle is a hard thing by which to decide the abstract question of right and wrong. I'm not growing cowardly, but rare feast. the more I reason the more I see the folly of ## war. But there are men enough, and if the Horse Thief Arrested. rebels can afford to stand it, surely when we MR EDITOR :- Doubtless your readers will have such a heritage to fight for we should all remember something over a year ago property of some rebel surgeon; a ve not shrink from the meeting, be it amid the reading the arrest of John Scales of Concord flask containing balls, caps and pour roar and clash of battle or in diplomatic halls as a horse thief, and how he slipped away property of Capt J. P. West of Sat where equal justice is dispensed.

I had felt confident all day of the victory, and ran away, making good his escape .-because I supposed our head men knew that Since that time Mr Bedell has been on the the Burlington Times on Monday Manassas was the enemy's strong-hold and that once taken the victory was almost done, him at Piermont, N. H. The circumstances move through the country. They find a and yet they rushed and hurried us on with which led to his arrest were as follows :nothing to eat, no cavalry, no artillery, and not one-tenth part enough to compete with their batteries. We had few men and nothing to support them when they gave out. would not give it up without an order from There has been some cool swearing among the owner, his object being to get the handthe troops since last Sunday. I hear Mc-Dowell has been placed in arrest for his gross mismanagement; there are dark whisperings about his lovalty; some say he has two sons in the Southern army, but I doubt its truthfulness; one thing I know, with the unbounded resources of the North, it is a shame to Clara Williams of Lyman, N. H., going unsuffer the reverse we have, we might just as well have had 100,000 men as 30,000; 10,-000 cavalry instead of 300 or 400, and 200 cannon as well as the few guns we had. We had better been a month in battering down batteries and in making gradual approaches than to have lost the day. For my part, if my life would have turned the current of the battle, I would willingly have made the sacrifice. I trust you know me well enough to know that I never will forsake my country in the hour of her adversity. I have no fears of the final result of this contest, but this has

Beaurogard said himself that if Manassas

Local and State Heurs.

F. Snaulding of St. Johnsbury, for inter-It gives us pleasure to announce that Prof. milk pan, and Geo S Reynolds of Tak assignor to himself, James Brown, and a Root will hold another Musical Convention in this place the last week in August ; notice and by posters. This is in accordance with to the Senate on Wednesday were the a vote of the executive committee while at the following Vermonters : the convention here last winter, and we have Assistant Adjutant General-Adjutant

17 Patents were issued

States Patent Office for the week and ly 23, 1861, each bearing that date and no doubt that it meets the wishes of all who Commissary of Subsistence with a were so fortunate as to hear Prof Root at Captain-Col Abijah Keith, of M. that time. We trust that the singers and Assistant Quartermaster with rate masic-loving people of this part of our State tain-Gardner S. Blodgett, of Burlins will all be present, as we can insure them a re John B. Langdon, Jr. has see to his father in this place a hundle of . gathered from the battle-field at it. Among them is a silver pocket case ing three luncets, one of which neurance of recent use, and is eviia.; a metalic cartridge, balls, slugfrom the sheriff, H. W. Bedell of Lunenburg, shot, buttons, &c. - Walton's Da

CP* A special despatch from Rlookout for him, and Thursday last arrested there is a party of two or more burglass heard of at Fort Edward, next at W on Saurday night, where they enter When he went away he left his valise in the houses, and got four to five hundred hands of Bedell, and after he had gone his with silver watches Ye. I ast side father. Luther Scales, claimed it. Bedeli peared at Castleton, where they re-S. & W. Railroad denot of lifeet writing of the culprit. His father procured I? We understand from a privthe order and Bedell upon its reception left C. H. Joyce of the Second Regiment has 't nortions of it at such Post-offices as he signed his commission as Major of the lt thought most likely the said Seales would ment and is about to return home. - If put in letters. It seems Scales had formed Daily.

> EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT St Johnsbury, July 31, 186 Samuel II' Thaver is Chairman at the Board of to be from Chelsea, Vt. The Postmaster at Lyman having become satisfied that Jackson Sur-Under date of the 25th of M. Morrill was the thief John Scales, notified secretary of war issued general ord Bedell of the probability and Bedell immedi- 25, as follows: "The plan of ately started in pursuit. He ascertained that for the volunteer forces designated in g order No. 15, of May 4th, 1861, is he was at work for a farmer named Hodge, fied as to allow one Surgeon and one A of Piermont, N. H., and he then took deputy ant Surgeon to each regiment; to b sheriff Stevens of Haverhill and went to the ed by the governors of the respective house of Hodge, finding and arresting him, after having passed an examination by a He was armed with a brace of pistols and a retent medical board appointed by the ge dirk knife, but the arrest was so sudden and be subject to the approval of the secretary unexpected that he had no opportunity of war."

an attachment and corresponded with one der the name of Jackson Morrill, purporting reach when the oxen started and caught him

The following, which appeared in these columns two or three years ago, we think showing fight. He is now lodged in the jail As no appointment of Surgeons for : and oth regiments will be made exce at Guildhall, Vt., where he awaits his trial. candidates who shall have passed an inter-Much praise is due to the untiring efforts of ation as above indicated, allow me to sheriff Bedell in accomplishing his recapture. that a meeting of your Board may for the examination of Surgeons. Lunenburg, Aug. 3, 1861.

harvesters.

Whitney of same place for improven-15 Among the army nominations ....

Stevens of the First Regiment of that important position.

From the Third Regiment.

We have been shown a private letter from der?" Camp Lyon to a citizen of this place, dated August 2, in which is much readable matter, but the lateness of the time it was received prevents us conving at length from it. The ty, which is very gatifying to us, of course, as and I don't know but he is the more popular ination in this county. on that account." In another place the same writer says: "We had a short visit from ments he was in camp he seems to have won passed have been approved by the President. Gen McClellin vesterday, and in the few mothe confidence of every man in the regiment. He came very quietly, attended by about a with one of the most pleasing countenances I at Richmond. ever saw."

The First Regiment at Home.

The 1st Vermont regiment arrived at Brattleboro on Tuesday evening, their three months' time having expired the 2d instant. They were stationed, as all of our readers know, most of the time at Newport News, Va The only one of their number killed (several have died) during their absence was Sergeant Whitney of Woodstock, who was little better [ than murdered by the rebels, the circumstan- and is undoubtedly correct : ces of whose death we give elsewhere. About a dozen of their number return wound. ed, carrying paintal recollections of the storm- Regiment. He was specially recommended command of the regiment, Col Phelps having Stoughton's qualifications and capacity to plans.

Gov Fairbanks went to Brattleboro on Tuesday, and it is supposed that the regiment state was mustered out of service on Thursday.

The 1st regiment of Vermont Volunteers responded quickly at the call of their countive and grateful neonle.

"TURNED UF."-Our old companion and brother type, Leonard Worcester, has turned the work assigned to him, as we are inform- for the locality from whence the sounds came, up under rather peculiar circumstances. We ed. Probably an official announcement or to ascertain the cause. After marching for see by the Lawrence (Kansas) Journal of the 18th of July, that Mr Worcester had just ar- his diploma from the Medical University at half-mile further on they discovered Whitney tioned near Marysville, Missouri, It seems the command devolved upon Lieut Col Fiske severe losses, there is but little doubt but Col Burnside himself relates that, testing the that the better feelings of humanity triumphresources of his brigade, he said to Col Fiske ed when the contest was fairly over, and our "Will your men obey such and such an or- men were kindly cared for. The Washington

To which Col Fiske replied : "My men will obey any order."

, ted States army, who escaped from Manassas DECLINES .- The democratic state tick a few days since, traveled the woods, crossed letter says: "Our colonel (Wm. F. Smith) put in nomination at Montpelier, July 24, has the Potomac on a rule raft of his own conis in command of all the forces in this vicini- publicly declined, and their letters of declinastruction, and reached here safe and sound nation are published in the papers. We vesterday afternoon. He fully corroborates showing the confidence which the government think there will be but one state ticket in the the testimony of the noble Mrs Hinsdale, Mr has in him; and it also increases our confi, field this year, and in many counties there Burch, and several of our officers and mendence in him. He is very much liked and will be but one ticket nominated. It is intiwho have escaped from the rebels. He asvery popular in the regiment, but very strict; mated that the democrats will make no nomsured me that our wounded men shared the same treatment as their wounded in every Congress adjourned on Tuesday, after respect, except that their men were taken off the field first, while some of our troops lay a busy session of 32 days. All the bills two days under trees near the battle, and The pay of the soldiers is increased $2 per were then taken to Manassas, where they received every attention that could be given a dozen horsemen. I saw him but a moment, IF Accounts are conflicting respecting Col ers, he says, allowed no exhibitions of anihat a montrait, was long enough to see that Corcoran of the New York 69th. The latest mosity toward our prisoners, and in many he was a large and splendid looking man, reports lead us to believe that he a prisoner instances took pains to see that our wounded were made comfortable.

IP By a letter from Joseph S. Hall, from the Glen House, (which, by the way, was five days coming from Gorham, N. H.,) we learn that the road to the summit of Mt Washington was to be opened on Thursday, the 8th. there and received the most tender care." We suppose that people can now ride in carriages to the summit.

Appointments.

The following is from the Rutland Herald, Whitney, of that town, near Newport News on the 25d ult.

the United States Army, has been appointed master of Col Bendix's regiment, he started by Goy Fairbanks, colonel of the Fourth V: from Newport News, mounted on a mule, ing of the rebels masked battery at Hamp- to Senator Foot by Lieut Gen Scott himself, with the intention of visiting Hampton, which Lieut Col P. T. Washburn returned in from one of the professors at West Point. gone about five miles and had reached a who speaks in the highest terms of been retained at Newport News for a few command a regiment. We do not doubt, brush were very thick, nine shots were fired days to carry out some previously arranged from all we learn of him, that he is capable at them from the bushes. At the fourth of going forward with the organization of the shot Becker, being ahead, turned and said to

4th regiment in the right way, and of making Whitney, who had his mule at full gallop, Edmund Weston, jr., of West Randolph, Whitney's mule wheeled and gailoped back a graduate of Norwich University under Gen and Becker's fell. The latter disengaged Ransom, and subsequently, when residing in himself from his fallen mule, took to the Boston, a member for three or four years of try, and acquited themselves nobly in its ser- the celebrated Boston Cadets, has been ap- bushes and made good his escape to the vice; let them have the praise of an apprecia- pointed to organize and take the command camp, supposing his companion to be safe of sharp shooters to be raised in this state with his mule. A party of men from the 9th for Berdan's regiment. Capt Weston has company were out at the time after cattle gone to New York for instructions, and will return in a few days and enter at once upon and hearing the firing started immediately proclamation will soon be made. Capt Weson is a physician by profession, and received

Loaned Books.

should be re-printed :

veral newspapers throughout the stat Respectfully yours. By a letter from Messrs, D. H. & T. G.

In compliance with the always ten we get organized again we will wipe out this with a load of lumber, was caught under the His Excellency, a meeting of the is Medical Examiners will be holden at B Falls on Thusday afternoon Alas tices of such meeting be published

SAMUEL W. THATLE, D. M. D.

FRASITS F

17 Some of our Vermont exchanges worried because the Governor purchas d wayous and ambulances for the 2d H .. ment in Concord, N. H., rather than ble, we understand, to soomer than they co

MESSRS, EDITORS :- I miss from my librahomes and he deeme storial intertation ry several books of greater or less value. Some of them have been long missing, and tractical others have disappeared more recently. Some many and excelle of them I recollect to have loaned-others, no doubt, have been loaned, but of the fact I have no recollection. The borrowers of these books, no doubt intended to return them, does. He can do nothing that please when they took them, and probably some of So far as the purchase them have the promise to return them, dis- Second Regiment is co tinetly in their recollection : but having neg- all right. lected so long to do so, are now considering that none how to do it with good grace. Now, Messrs, Editors, if you will just hint done at Concord. As th State of Massachusetts purchased the a in the CALEDONIAN, to all borrowers of books used by her traces at this same C that the safest and best way to relieve their notwithstanding the fact consciences, is at once to make a manly or cellent monufactories in that Stat. the womanly thing of it, and return all their bor- find no rowed books of more than three months authority for doing it. puff or praise Gov Fairl standing, to their respective owners, it is require it + hat me probable you will confer a favor on other fault-finding. Gov I obstacles to conten

Your humble servant. State News.

Last week Monday, M. Kingman, of Ver- ment. We agree with the Planie to a old musket at the rebels. I may not have gennes, had his left hand badly cut in a shav- ter of the wagons is rather a small m

> Two prisoners broke jail in St Albans, last week Wednesday. One of them named Ambrose Taylor's house in Washington, Vt., was struck by lightning last Friday, and set on fire in several places. The floor was badly torn up where Mr Taylor had been have no fears for me, for I am well and in a sitting but a moment before. The lightning ported that all th struck the house of Quincy O. Calef, doing slight damage, also the barn of Barak Smith, army, will be released on eix injuring it slightly. Several trees were also not to bear arms again States or afford aid an struck. We learn from the Windsor Journal that were primed former

THE WAR

recovering the price on in a rebels, inasmuch as have not been official cnemy The detention of Geo. Sawyer, of Felchville, aged nine years, as a great outrage. He was and according to all the real killed a man of them, but I pitched them ing machine. One finger was taken quite criticise,-St. Albane Messenary lenders, as well as on ce, having deserted from the Burlington. camp of Ben McCulloch, who was then stall use of the rifle.

Yox

The New Regiments.

that Mr Worcester was pressed into the serination it was found that he had several buck Of the two new regiments to be raised in shot in his left arm, and one, supposed to be vice (a favorite style of the rebels) of Gen this state we understand that Gov Fairbank-Price, and as he is a musical genius his ser intends to locate one at St Johnsbury and the vices were employed in discoursing music for other at St Albans. The one to be located the inspiration of the rebels. This did not at St Johnsbury is to be a Zouave regiment. This sad event has cast a gloem over the suit his peculiar taste overmuch, and so he a- and the one here is to have a company of ar- entire brigade, as it seems only like murder.' vailed himself of the first opportunity that consist each of one thousand and forty men. presented to disconnect himself permanently and are to be put under the strictest discifrom the service. By the help of a good pair pline. Recruiting offices are to be immediof legs he was enabled to do this to his entire ately opened in different parts of the state. satisfaction. We are glad to hear from this and it is believed there will be no difficulty wandering type-sticker, and do not wonder in a short time .- St Albans Messenger. he could not "get up a lip" to blow for the The Messenger further states that Mr Stoughton is to be colonel of the regiment stationed at St Albans. We have understood Mt ader.-- A despatch from Alexandria, Virginia, dated Saturday, says: "A most regiment. wanton murder was committed here to-day. about 10 o'clock, by Wm. Murray of company F, 2d N. H. regiment. The victim was an unfortunate girl named Mary Butler, livdeliberately shot her with his musket. The Murray was tried by a court martial, and stock .- Bradford Telegraph.

sebels.

and a second second

the fatal one, in the armnit. The officer from whose letter we gather these facts adds .-tillery attached to it. The regiments are to Mr Whitney was 33 years of age and unmarried."

tourths of a mile after being shot. He was immediately taken to camp and upon exam-burned, that was all.

The Killing of D. H. Whitney.

OF Almost the First of August and no hind a hill. The enemy then made a flank ments to suit the three classes of society tween hear and the Yellow Fever city. We drew to the road. I was standing near Col place a dwelling within the reach of every that he was appointed colonel of the Zouave PASSUMPSIC RAILROAD MEETING .-- The ning anything in the shape of a bill .- Cincin- no one could have done more than he did in Havana. The value of the contract will be meeting of the stockholders of this road at noti Gazette.

and after exchanging a few words with her Thomas, Emmons Raymond, B. P. Cheney, into bottles, with a little flag in the cork, and and were among the last to retreat. John Gilman, Albert Knight, E. B. Chase, sends them down the river, to be picked up The rout that some papers have told so deliberately shot her with his musket. The ball passed entirely through her body, and Carruth, Charles W. Brown. A dividend of Carruth, Charles W. Brown. A dividend of would rather have the bottles filled with whis-20 per cent was made, payable in preferred would rather have the bottles filled with whis-has for sale portraits and maps for the times, reach home, Col Phelps could enlist two-onet, and would gladly explate his invite the bottles filled with whis-back is precipitate, but many regiments marched and is New England agent for Lloyd's com-out it did no serious injury; my arm was money and he was never known to make senseless for a while and was blackened and mistake. He will pour the contents of a bag utes before his body was rescued, and all of gold or silver coin into a scale-for it is By this time the ammunition for our ar- weighed, not counted-and in a trice announ-tillery had given out, and their horses were ces the amount in dollars and cents; then Speliman, was instantly killed on the Vt. them, and it is refusing note at disabled, the cavalry were fearful of meeting running his fingers through the shining the Black Horse regiment, their hosts ap- pieces, and applying his nose to them, impeared countless and the folly of sending a mediately takes out every counterfeit coin. few exhausted infantry had about played out, A Baltimore builder and contractor, only adhering to the body by a piece of skin. ment. it was also known that one other division named Michael Roche, is constructing for a had withdrawn, and we slowly left the field company in Havana. 800 frame houses, of and obtained shelter from the iron hail be- three classes, varying in size and embellishmusquetoes yet! Cause-the blockade, the movement with cavalry and light artillery found in Havana-the poor, the middle and in raising the requisite number of volunteers cutting off of steamboat communication be- which we successfully evaded, and we with- the rich. The object of the company is to a most beautiful speckled trout of the "large government service.

understand that a cargo of the sharp-toothed Howard, commander of the brigade, when man's means. Parties, by paying a certain the end of its tail 184 inches, and round animals left for the North not long ago, but McDowell's order came to retreat to Centre- amount monthly, come into freehold posses- its back to the forward fin, and weighing two in Washington on Wednesday. Two got no further than Memphis, in which se- ville. I shall never forget the painful ex- sion of the house and lot at the expiration pounds and nine ounces, and "nothing short- tiemen named Back, one of whom live cession village they subsequently starved to pression that passed over his face. He is a of eight years. The frames are to be fitted death, the residents thereof instinctively shun- fine officer, but has had no experience, yet together in this country and then shipped to its jaw.-Montpelier Freeman.

his place; the battle was lost before we were several millions of dollars, and of great ad-White River Junction on Wednesday was IF A man in St Louis, out of love to in the field. They showered down the can-vantage to the mechanics of Baltimore. an unfortunate girl named Mary Butler, liv-ing in the lower part of the city. Murray, who was drunk, accosted her in the street, Keyes, Josiah Stickney, E. Cleveland, Wm ton, a neat little volume, entitled "Chimes of

He had lain in the water about fifteen minter the battle was user. The Washington corresp efforts failed to discover the least evidence of York Post says that Goy Washburn of Ma lor and Fillmore's administration.

him if he should attempt it."

is in Washington, and office many IF A boy of six years named Michael from his state if the government w Central track at the lake vesterday morning. Half a million of men will be in He fell from a train of dirt cars which he and the first of November, and three his playmates had contrived to set a-going thousand in a month from to-day. down the grade, and his head was cut off, at least, is the expectation of the war -

-Burlington Free Press, 29th. It is reported that the second A HUGE TROUT .- Fred E. Smith, Esq., of sent one thousand stand of arms to this village, on Monday of this week, in the Wayne county, Virginia, for the use Worcester branch of the Winooski river, in a loyal men in that region, A mplalegal, fair, constitutional way, "on his own formed at Ceredo within the last two ar hook," it being a fly-hook, caught and saved and volunteers are ranidly emisting specie," measuring from the tip of its nose to er." Mr Smith was just twenty minutes in Massachusetts, the other in New York 2 landing his prize after putting the hook into ing sons in the South, and hearing young man of their name had been IF Luther P. Blodgett has been appoint- prisoner, came on and obtained permit ed Clerk in the Navy Department. Mr B. visit the jail. Curiously enough, they a has been Sheriff of Chittenden County, and the door, and entered together. The M was Postmaster at Burlington during Taychusetts man instantly recognized his i prisoner, and fell senseless of the feet (F Roswell Farnham, Esg., of the first he recovered from the shock. the sin Freedom and Union," a collection of poems Vermont regiment, in a letter to the Windsor and when the war broke out was impact for the times, by various authors. He also Journal, says that "in four weeks after we into the rebel service at the point of the tional army. Senator Wilson, who is in the