

DAUGHTERS.

The daughters of the South, in the midst of the war, are not only suffering from the loss of their loved ones, but from the want of food and clothing. The war has done much to impoverish the South, and the people are suffering from the want of the necessaries of life. The daughters of the South are not only suffering from the loss of their loved ones, but from the want of food and clothing. The war has done much to impoverish the South, and the people are suffering from the want of the necessaries of life. The daughters of the South are not only suffering from the loss of their loved ones, but from the want of food and clothing. The war has done much to impoverish the South, and the people are suffering from the want of the necessaries of life. The daughters of the South are not only suffering from the loss of their loved ones, but from the want of food and clothing. The war has done much to impoverish the South, and the people are suffering from the want of the necessaries of life.

Special Intelligence.

The following is a list of the names of the persons who have been appointed to the various offices of the South Western Baptist Association for the year 1861. The names are as follows: President, Wm. H. Jones; Secretary, J. M. Smith; Treasurer, T. R. Brown; and so on. The list continues with the names of the members of the various churches and societies that are members of the association.

Chaplain 4th AL

Clipped By: hjs21 Sun, Nov 6, 2022