AN EX-PITTSBURGHER IN PRISON AS A SECESSIONIST.—Many of our citizens will remember Geo. M. Brisbin, a printer, who was for a long time employed in this office. It had been asserted that he was in the secession army, but the following, from the Harrisburg Telegraph, is the latest intelligence we have of him:—"A man named Geo. M. Brisbin, said to be an officer in one of the New Orleans volunteer companies, was confined in our prison last Saturday by Sheriff Boas, at the instance of the authorities at Washington. Brisbin, it appears, was taken prisoner at Bull Run, and subsequently confined at Washington. He managed, however, to secure a citizen's dress, and effected his escape to this city, where it is said he stopped over night at the house of a relative, and proceeded next morning to Alexandria, Huntingdon county, where he was arrested.—We presume he will be taken back to Washington to await the action of the authorities."
